ATACAMA QUOTATION

San Pedro de Atacama · Five Days on the High Desert

The programme our San Pedro operator has confirmed for your party of four, from the Calama landing on the 22nd to the airport run on the 26th — priced at what the operator charges, read line by line against the December calendar, and with three things you should know before you say yes.

No. COT-2026-0160

Issued 04 Sep 2026

Valid until 23 Sep 2026

Currency CLP

Segar — here is the adjusted programme, exactly as our operator in San Pedro sent it, with nothing added to the figures. You will pay the San Pedro agency directly, in your own name: that is our transparency policy, and it means the numbers in this document are the numbers, not a marked-up version of them. What we have done is check the week against the December calendar, and three things came out of that — one of them is Christmas Eve, and it needs a decision from you this month rather than in December.

AT A GLANCE

DATES 22-26 Dec 2026	TRAVELLERS 4	BASE San Pedro de Atacama	NIGHTS 4
EXCURSIONS 6 + 2 transfers	ALTITUDE 2,400 - 4,500 m	SEASON High summer	PAYMENT Direct to operator

 DECEMBER CALENDAR CHECK

-  Thursday 24 December is Christmas Eve, and you get back to town at 20:30. In Chile the celebration is the night of the 24th, not the morning of the 25th. Kitchens in San Pedro either close early that evening or run a single set menu that fills up weeks ahead. Coming off the Valle de la Luna at half past eight with nothing booked is the one way this week goes wrong. Tell us what you want and we will book it now — hotel set menu, a table in town, or a private dinner.
-  Thursday is labelled "full day" in the operator's programme. It is not, and that is in your favour. Puritama runs 09:30–13:30 and the Valle de la Luna Sur runs 16:30–20:30 — two half-days with three free hours between them, and the price quoted is the half-day rate, not a full-day one. We have listed it correctly below so there is no surprise at the desk.
-  The altitude is sequenced correctly. Friday climbs to roughly 4,500 m at Piedras Rojas and the altiplanic lagoons. It falls on your fourth day, after three nights at 2,400 m in San Pedro — which is exactly where it belongs. We would not move it earlier, and we would not add anything to Thursday night.
-  Three of the four park entries have to be bought in advance. Cejar, Puritama and Piedras Rojas sell tickets ahead of the date and the operator must hold them — which is why the full ticket cost, CLP 284,000, sits in the confirmation payment rather than being paid on the day.

One date to keep in view: the operator refunds 100% of the deposit on cancellations made 90 days or more before departure. For 22 December that line falls on Wednesday 23 September. Confirm on or before that date and you hold the week with your money still fully recoverable — which is why this quotation is valid until then.

TUE 22 DEC In over the Cordillera de DomeykoNight 1 · San Pedro*18:15 Landing at El Loa (CJC), Calama

Your driver is waiting in arrivals. Private vehicle, your party only, from this moment.

18:15-20:00 Private transfer to your hotel in San Pedro

About 100 km across the desert, an hour and three quarters. You arrive with the last of the light on the Licancabur.

evening Nothing scheduled, on purpose

San Pedro sits at 2,400 m. Water, an early dinner, an early night — the rest of the week is built on this one.

WED 23 DEC Colour in the morning, salt in the afternoonNight 2 · San Pedro*09:30-13:30 Valle del Arcoíris — Rainbow Valley

Into the heart of the Cordillera de Domeyko, where the geology has striped the rock green, red and ochre. On the same run, the pucará de Chuschul — a hillfort raised for defence by the area's ancestral inhabitants thousands of years ago. Snack included.

15:30-19:30 Laguna Cejar · Ojos de Tebenquiche · Laguna Tebenquiche

The classic of the salt flat's heart. Swim in the emerald, salt-heavy water of Laguna Piedra (Cejar), where you float without any effort; on to the Ojos de Tebenquiche; and finish at Laguna Tebenquiche and its living rocks — colonised for millions of years by extremophiles that chose this improbable place to survive — under the volcanoes of the Andes. Pisco sour and snack included.

THU 24 DEC Thermal water, then the salt range at dusk

Night 3 · Christmas Eve

09:30-13:30 Termas de Puritama

Eight thermal pools stepped down a canyon north of town, known for warm mineral water and for the setting they sit in. Time enough to actually stay in them. Pisco sour and snack included.

13:30-16:30 Three hours free in San Pedro

Lunch and a rest. This is the gap the "full day" label hides.

16:30-20:30 Valle de la Luna Sur

Through the Cordillera de la Sal to the Vallecito, the off-circuit entrance to the Valle de la Luna: the Río de Sal, a panorama from the cornices, a walk along them, old salt-mine shafts, and at the end an abandoned bus out in the middle of the range — a marker of the hard mining past of this ground. Snack included.

20:30 Back in town for Nochebuena

See the note above. Dinner needs to be booked now, not in December.

FRI 25 DEC The long day, and the high one

Night 4 · Christmas Day

10:00-18:00 Piedras Rojas · Laguna Tuyajto · Lagunas Altiplánicas · Socaire & Toconao

The southeast of the Salar de Atacama along its eastern edge: high-Andean lagoons and salt flats, Miscanti and Miñiques among them; the millennial shelters that served hunter-gatherers — nomads who followed the animals they lived on, before domestication was possible; and the streets of Socaire and Toconao on the way through. Lunch in the field and a snack included.

all day Between 3,500 and 4,500 m

The highest day of the week, and deliberately the fourth. Slow pace, plenty of water, and no alcohol the night before.

SAT 26 DEC Out

Flight home

10:00-11:45 Private transfer, hotel → El Loa (CJC)

Private vehicle, your party only.

11:45 Dropped at Calama airport

Book your flight out from about 13:15 onward. Anything earlier and the morning gets tight.

✓ TRANSPARENCY POLICY · YOU PAY THE OPERATOR DIRECT

- ✓ Payment goes directly to the agency in San Pedro de Atacama, into their account, in your own name. Tourevo does not receive, hold or forward your money at any point.
- ✓ Every figure in this document is the operator's own price. Nothing is marked up and no commission is taken out of it. What you see is what the agency charges.
- ✓ You will be introduced by name. On confirmation we put you in touch with the person at the San Pedro agency who runs your week. They issue the invoice, the receipt and your vouchers, and they are the name on your bank transfer.
- ✓ We stay with you anyway. Tourevo remains your contact before and throughout the trip — same person, from this message to the airport — whether or not a single peso passes through us.

POSTPONEMENT AND CANCELLATION

The operator books far ahead, and the diary fills ahead. These are their terms, and the dates below are those terms applied to 22 December 2026.

On or before Wed 23 Sep 2026	Cancel and the deposit is returned in full — 100%. Ninety days out. This is the date this quotation is valid until, and it is not a sales device: it is the last day your money is fully recoverable.
24 Sep - Fri 23 Oct 2026	Cancel and 50% of the deposit is returned. Between ninety and sixty days out.
On or before Fri 23 Oct 2026	Postpone to another date at no cost, with the deposit untouched. Sixty days out. Postponement is treated far more generously than cancellation — if the dates might move, this is the line that matters to you.
After Fri 23 Oct 2026	No refund, and no free postponement. Inside sixty days the week is held for you and cannot be resold.

THE DETAIL

Not included

- Flights. Santiago ↔ Calama (CJC) and anything international. We book them for you at cost if you want us to.
- Your hotel in San Pedro and the four nights in it. The transfers run to and from whichever hotel you choose; tell us and we will quote it.
- Meals other than those named — the lunch on Friday, and the snacks and pisco sours on each excursion.
- Park entrance fees, listed separately above and additional to the programme price.
- Travel insurance, tips and anything personal.

Things to know

- Entrance fees are shown at the foreign-visitor rate. Several of these parks charge Chilean nationals less. If anyone in the party holds a Chilean ID, tell us and the entries come down.
- There are reduced rates for children at three of the four parks — under 18 at Arcoíris and Piedras Rojas, under 13 at Cejar. We have priced all four of you as adults; tell us if that is wrong and the total drops.
- Cejar is intensely saline. Rinse showers are on site. Bring a towel, flip-flops, and nothing you mind getting salt on.
- December is high summer here. Strong sun and around 25 °C in town by day; close to freezing at 4,500 m on Friday morning. Layers, hat, high-factor sunscreen.
- Excursion times are the operator's. They can shift with weather or road conditions in the altiplano; the agency will tell you the night before.

☆ THE TOUREVO HALLMARK

 Prices with nothing on top You pay the operator directly, at the operator's own price. We never hold your money and take no cut of it.	 We stay close WhatsApp open before and throughout — same person, from this message to the airport.	 Entirely private The transfers are yours alone, and the excursions are run by the operator we have chosen, not by whoever is cheapest that week.
 We read the programme Christmas Eve, the mislabelled Thursday, the altitude order, the tickets that must be pre-bought. All of it before you saw it.	 Local knowledge We are a Chilean DMC. The agency running your week is one we work with in San Pedro, not a name found on a booking site.	 You at the centre Four travellers, four nights, one desert. Everything here is sized to your party and nobody else's.

COMMERCIAL CONDITIONS

CURRENCY Chilean pesos (CLP)	PAID TO The San Pedro agency, directly, in your own name	TO CONFIRM 40% of the programme + 100% of the advance entrance fees	BALANCE Before the programme begins, 22 Dec 2026
POSTPONEMENT Free of charge until 23 Oct 2026	CANCELLATION 100% until 23 Sep · 50% until 23 Oct · none after	ENTRANCE FEES Set by each park, additional to the programme	QUOTATION VALID Until 23 Sep 2026

On the entrance fees: they are set by each park, not by the operator or by us, and are shown at the foreign-visitor rate. Parks can and do revise them; the amount you pay is the amount in force on the date, and we will tell you if it moves before you pay.

On the validity: 23 September is not an artificial deadline. It is the last day on which the operator returns the whole deposit if you change your mind, and December in San Pedro is the busiest month of the year — the diary for the 24th and 25th closes well before then.

Say yes and we do three things, in this order: hold the week with the agency, introduce you to the person who will run it, and book your table for Christmas Eve.
